

Genova Burns Giantomasi Webster LLC

At the Intersection of Law, Government and Business

Genova Burns Giantomasi Webster LLC began in 1989 when its founding partners decided they shared a vision for the practice of law and a philosophy of entrepreneurialism and strategic risk taking. From a handful of attorneys hanging their shingle in suburban New Jersey, the firm has grown over the past 25 years to one of the region's most influential and powerful law firms with over 80 attorneys working out of seven offices in Newark, Red Bank, Camden and Jersey City, NJ; New York City; Philadelphia, PA; and Washington, DC.

Committed to providing its clients with representation at the highest standard of excellence, Genova Burns Giantomasi Webster is considered to be ideally situated at the intersection of law, government and business.

The firm moved to Newark seven years ago as a demonstration of its commitment to the region's urban centers. Since its move, the firm has built upon its original reputation in the area of public sector labor and employment law representing management towards a region-wide renown for exemplary representation of public and private entities in a broad range of industries. Participation by the firm's real estate group in many of the recent major property deals in cities like Newark and Jersey City illustrates its preeminence in redevelopment, land use and urban planning law. The firm's litigators have received several prestigious awards which recognize their superior representation of clients' business interests in addition to their successful advancement of significant public policy objectives.

Genova Burns Giantomasi Webster is now a full service law firm with practice areas focused on alternate dispute resolution; appellate practice; aviation & aircraft law; business law & commercial transactions; casino & gaming law; commercial real estate & redevelopment law; complex commercial litigation; construction law & litigation; corporate political activity law; education law; employment law & litigation; energy & utility law; environmental law; health & hospital law; infrastructure, transportation & logistics law; intellectual property law; labor law; land use & approvals; nonprofit and tax exempt organizations; public contract law and bid protest litigation; trusts & estates; wage & hour compliance; and white collar defense, corporate internal investigations and corporate ethics. ■

In 2014 Genova Burns Giantomasi Webster celebrated 25 years of providing excellent legal services to New Jersey's business community. In a short amount of time, this law firm has grown from three attorneys in the suburbs into a regional powerhouse, representing some of the most important companies, individuals and organizations in and around the Garden State.
