Large-Firm Expertise With Small-Firm Attention

Archer has an unwavering commitment to delivering large-firm expertise with small-firm attention – no matter the size of the client. It's a philosophy that has helped us grow into one of the largest and most trusted law firms in the region, serving businesses and individuals throughout the area and in a growing number of other states and jurisdictions. No matter how you measure success, with a network of regional offices from Delaware to New York, and nearly 180 attorneys in over 40 practice areas including corporate, labor, commercial litigation, family, real estate and many more, we are focused on helping you reach your goals

Our attorneys have impressive academic credentials, representing some of the very best law schools and undergraduate institutions in the country. We encourage and expect our attorneys to continue their legal training throughout their career to keep current with new developments. Our lawyers have distinguished themselves in speaking and writing engagements for countless trade, business and educational institutions. Archer attorneys serve in leadership positions in local, state and national bar organizations and are active on the boards of many prominent nonprofit and for-profit companies and organizations.

Among our attorneys are former elected officials and prominent business leaders – people who have helped to shape the legislative, legal and regulatory landscape. Our attorneys have distinguished themselves in numerous areas of practice, receiving recognition from a wide variety of legal and industry organizations. Over the years, Archer and its legal professionals have been involved in numerous landmark cases, at all levels of the judicial system, including the United States Supreme Court. The outcomes of these cases have often had a profound effect on the legal framework in which many businesses operate today.

Archer also maintains a strong commitment to fostering diversity in the firm and strives to create a workplace environment that embraces differences in perspectives and cultures so that all can work in an atmosphere of inclusion and respect. This not only provides Archer employees with an opportunity to flourish in their careers, but also optimizes the firm's ability to provide exceptional service to its clients.
